Thursday, February 28th, 2008, the Billings Outlaws, Montana's own professional football team, are proud to announce, in cooperation with the Carmike Theatres, the one-night only premier of the feature-length movie “Outlaw Dreams”.

In 2006, the Billings Outlaws professional indoor football team had a storybook season culminating with a league championship in the National Indoor Football League. A video crew videotaped the entire season, from training camp through the championship game under the direction of Writer/Director/Producer Howie Klausner.

Featuring highlights from the 2006 Championship season, “Outlaw Dreams” will be shown exclusively, one night only at 8:00pm and 10:00pm at the Carmike Wynnsong 10 Theatres at Rimrock Mall. Attending Thursday’s premier will be the owners, coaches and players of the Billings Outlaws, arriving at 7:30pm by Limo Scene and Carriage Co. limosines.

The public is invited to the premier and welcome to be at the Wynnsong 10 Theatres at 7:00pm to welcome members of the Outlaws football team, including Coach Heron O’Neal, quarterback Chris Dixon, wide receiver Robert Reed, linebacker Travis Salter and other members of the “Dream” team.

“Outlaw Dreams” is the inspiring story of Billings, Montana’s own, as Klausner puts it, “lunch-pail, working man heroes. They came from everywhere and nowhere and, for the princely sum of 200 bucks a game. This movie is about the 25 guys that came together and, with the support of the town, had one, unforgettable Dream season."

The two features will open to season ticket holders, sponsors and VIP guests as well as the general public. Season ticket holders will be able to pick up their season tickets, complimentary t-shirts and have the opportunity to purchase Outlaw replica jerseys at half price.

The general public will be able to buy season tickets, Outlaw souvenirs and have a chance to meet and greet the 2008 Billings Outlaws, the new Lady Outlaws, Most Wanted Dance Team and the gunslinging Rocky Fork Regulators. Tickets to the 8:00pm and 10:00pm showings have been discounted to $3.00 for this exclusive showing. Seating is limited and will be available on a first come, first served basis.

DVD copies of the movie will also be available for sale at the premier.

For information about the premier of "Outlaw Dreams", interested individuals may call 839-9080. To schedule interviews with Howie Klausner, contact Blair Dear at 245-6818. For Outlaws season ticket information, call 256-2422.

About Howie Klausner

Singer-Songwriter-Screenwriter Howie Klausner grew up in Nashville, recording and touring on the Gospel circuit as Christian Rock was emerging. Moving to Hollywood after high school, he acted in theater and commercials before graduating film school at the University of Southern California.

A screenwriter by trade, he and Ken Kaufman teamed to write Space Cowboys, starring Clint Eastwood in 2000. Following his passion for space stories, he followed up with ROCKETMAN, the biography of astronaut Pete Conrad. Klausner and Eng have played live together for nearly fifteen years, formed the Movies in 2003.

Howard Klausner recently wrote ROCKETMAN, the biography of Pete Conrad with the assistance of the late astronaut's wife. He also co-wrote the 2000 feature film, SPACE COWBOYS, directed by, and starring Clint Eastwood. He is currently developing a network television series about the space program for executive producers Gabe Sachs and Jeff Judah, and continues his screenwriting career on a variety of non-space topics.

Before breaking into film and television, Mr. Klausner was a songwriter and musician in Southern California. His band, THE MOVIES has released their first album MEET THE MOVIES. A native of Nashville, Tennessee, Mr. Klausner lives in the Pacific Northwest with his wife and three daughters. He writes aboard an old wooden sailboat when he's not playing music or working on his farm.
